It does not include any website that has its own separate agreement governing online access.

1. Your Use of the Service; Owners, Authorized Representatives and Delegates; Waiver of requirement for two or more signatures.

A. Your use of the Service.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, you may use the Service to access your Eligible Accounts, obtain Online Financial Service and perform authorized transaction through the Website. The available categories of Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service are described on the Website and may change from time to time, at our sole option. With respect to your Eligible Accounts, available transaction may include obtaining balance information, transaction history, portfolio detail and portfolio allocation. It also includes research reports, price quotations and other market commentary.

We do not provide any computer hardware or software programs for access to the Website. You are responsible for acquiring and maintaining a computer or other electronic device and equipment that can handle and access the Service. You are also responsible for all costs associated with accessing the Service and your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service.

In the event you use the Service or the links included on the Website to gain access to a website or Internet location or source of information of any other company, organization or person, you acknowledge that such other websites or locations are not under our control and agree that we shall not be responsible for any information or other links found at any such website or Internet location or source of information, or for your use of such information. We provide such links only as a convenience to you, and have not tested any software or verified any information found at such websites (except with respect to a prospectus or sales literature prepared by us). The fact that we have provided a link to another website does not signify an endorsement of the website or its contents by us or constitute a recommendation by us of any security referenced on the website.

You understand the Service is intended for use by customers located within United States. You also understand that the Service is based in the United States. We do not make any representation that the Service is appropriate or available for use outside of the United States. You are prohibited from accessing the Service from territories where the use of the Service is not permitted. If you choose to access the Service from locations outside the United States, you do so at your own risk and you are responsible for compliance with local laws and regulations.

B. Owners, Authorized Representatives and Delegates.

If an Eligible Account is owned by more than one person or has more than one Authorized Representative or Delegate, each such person individually has the right to provide us with instructions (written, electronic, or verbal), make any decision, obtain any information or make any request associated with the Eligible Account and related Online Financial Service, to the extent allowed by the terms, conditions or governing provisions of the Eligible Account. You agree that each of your Authorized Representatives will be acting as your agent and will be bound by this Agreement and any separate agreement governing the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service. We may rely and act on the instructions of any such person without incurring liability to you. All transactions that an Authorized Representative performs on an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, including those you did not want or intend, are transactions authorized by you. You are solely responsible for those transactions, and we are not responsible for them.

1. If you make a person an authorized signer on an Eligible Account, and that authorized signer is enrolled in the Service, we may in our discretion treat that authorized signer as an Authorized Representative. If you notify us that an Authorized Representative is no longer authorized, only transactions that you did not want or intend and that the Authorized Representative performs after you notify us, and we have a reasonable opportunity to act on the notice, will be considered unauthorized transactions. Please refer to the specific agreements for your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service for more details.
2. From time to time, we may offer tools on the Website or through other channels for managing the authority of some of your Authorized Representatives ("Delegate Tools"). Delegate Tools permit you, either directly or through us, to limit or control the access that certain of your Authorized Representatives will have to, or tasks they can perform with, an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service. An Authorized Representative acting within the authority established using the Delegate Tools is referred to as a "Delegate" in Paragraphs 1.B.3 through B.9 of this Agreement. Any owner and certain Authorized Representatives of an Eligible Account may use the Delegate Tools to establish a Delegate. We may provide Delegate Tools that permit one Delegate to establish, or manage the access of, another Delegate. A Delegate may also, as an Authorized Representative, have other authority in addition to the authority established using the Delegate Tools. A Delegate appointment by one owner or a certain Authorized Representative of an Eligible Account will be considered a Delegate appointment by all other owners of that Eligible Account. You agree that you, and not we, are responsible for supervising all of your Authorized Representatives and monitoring the actions they take on your behalf, whether or not we provide Delegate Tools for managing their authority. Some Delegate features may not be available for certain accounts or customers.
3. All transactions that a Delegate performs on an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service within the scope of the authority you grant using the Delegate Tools, including any transactions you did not want or intend, are transactions authorized by you. You are solely responsible for those transactions, and we are not responsible for them. If you revoke or change the authority of a Delegate using the Delegate Tools, only transactions that you did not want or intend and that the Delegate performs after you change their authorization and we have a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice will be considered unauthorized transactions. To notify us that you want to terminate a Delegate appointment you have made on the Website, you must access the Website using your username and password, select the applicable link to manage access to your accounts on the account services page, and follow the directions to delete the Delegate, or you must contact Online Customer Service by calling 1-877-488-3748 with your notification to remove the Delegate. If you have made a Delegate appointment through another channel, you must follow the process for terminating the Delegate appointment through that same channel.

4. We may, at our option, permit you to authorize a Delegate to initiate fund transfers or other transactions on an Eligible Account or through an Online Financial Service. If you authorize a Delegate to initiate fund transfers or other transactions on an Eligible Account, then you are also agreeing that for purposes of such transactions the Delegate is an authorized signer on the Eligible Account, subject to the terms of the separate agreement for your applicable Eligible Account. In addition, if you make a person an authorized signer on an Eligible Account, and that authorized signer is enrolled in the Service, we may in our discretion treat that authorized signer as a Delegate and automatically assign View and Transact authority to that Delegate, as described in paragraph B.6, below.
5. You agree that you may only appoint Delegates, at our sole option, in accordance with the requirements and procedures we provide to you from time to time. This provision takes precedence over any conflicting provision in any other agreement you have with us. We may discontinue offering Delegate options or permitting Delegates to access your Eligible Account or Online Financial Service at any time without prior notice.
6. The Service includes the following types of Delegates:
 - View Only, a person with his or her own username and password for accessing the Service and for whom you authorize online access to an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, but with authority only to view balance and transaction information.
 - View and Transact, a person with his or her own username and password for accessing the Service and to whom you authorize online access to an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service with authority to engage in and authorize specified transactions with respect to that Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, as permitted by the Service.
7. You are responsible for ensuring that each Delegate maintains confidentiality of their username, password, or other login identification.
8. You agree that each Delegate will access and use each Eligible Account, and Online Financial Service, in accordance with the authority given to the Delegate by the delegating owner. Each time the Delegate accesses, views, or transacts on an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, you represent and warrant to us that the Delegate's action is authorized by the delegating owner. If we receive conflicting instructions, or if we believe that an Eligible Account's security or our security may be at risk as a result of a Delegate, we may at our sole discretion terminate the Delegate's access to the Service, an Eligible Account, or an Online Financial Service, or prevent the individual from being a Delegate, without prior notice to you or any account owner.
9. The authority of a Delegate will terminate when we have a reasonable opportunity to act on any of the following: (a) when an owner or Authorized Representative notifies us through the appropriate channel that the Delegate's authority is terminated and requests that the Delegate be removed, (b) when an owner or Authorized Representative notifies us that the owner appointing the Delegate ceases to be an owner on the Eligible Account and requests that the Delegate be removed, (c) upon our receiving written notice of the death or incapacity of the delegating owner from a court of competent jurisdiction or from a source that we consider official and reliable and requests that the Delegate be removed, (d) at our sole discretion if an owner or Delegate breaches any provision of this Agreement, or (e) when, in the case of a View Only Delegate or View and Transact Delegate, the Delegate ceases to be enrolled in the Service.

C. Waiver of requirement for two or more signatures

Any requirement to verify two or more signatures on any item (such as a check) does not apply to electronic transfers. This means that you're allowing any Authorized Representative on your Eligible Account to individually make electronic transfers, even though his/her authority to transfer or withdraw funds from your account by some other means (such as by check) must be exercised jointly with one or more other persons.

This provision controls and takes precedence over any conflicting provision in any other agreements you have with us.

2. Accessing Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service through the Service and terminating access

A. Gaining online access to or using the Service

You authorize us to provide access to your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service through the Service. You may access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service through the Website to obtain information and perform transactions as authorized on the Website.

To access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service through the Website you must have a username, a password and the supported hardware and software (see Online Technical Requirements for details). You must also comply with any other security procedures and policies we may establish from time to time.

Subject to the terms of this Agreement, you will generally be able to access your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service through the Website 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. At certain times, the Service may not be available due to system maintenance or circumstances beyond our control.

You must provide all telephone and other equipment, software (other than any software provided by us) and services you need to access the Service.

When using the Mobile Service, you may generally access certain Eligible Accounts through the mobile browser using a Mobile Device.

B. Terminating your access to the Service.

1. For violation of the Agreement. If you violate any terms of this Agreement (including the failure to pay fees under any applicable fee schedule) or any other agreement you have with us, you agree that we may suspend or terminate your access to any one or more of your Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service. We will not be required to reinstate or re-activate your access.
2. By your own choice. If you close all of your Eligible Accounts and terminate your Online Financial Service or withdraw from the Service, we may suspend or terminate your access without prior notice to you. In some cases, if you close your Eligible Accounts, you may also lose access to your Online Financial Service and we may terminate your access to the Service. We will not be required to reinstate or re-activate your access. Also, if you have no Eligible Accounts linked to the Service, or do not use the Service for a period of 24 consecutive months, or if we receive proper notification of death, we may, in our discretion, terminate your access without prior notice to you. We will try to notify you in advance of any termination, but are not required to do so.

3. Additional provisions for Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service.

A. Removal of online access.

For each Eligible Account, you may request removal of online access by sending an email through the Service or by calling Online Customer Service at 1-877-488-3748.

B. System maintenance and online account access.

At certain times, online access to one or more of your Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service may not be available due to system maintenance or circumstances beyond our control. During these times, for brokerage services, you may use our touch-tone service if you are enrolled or contact your broker at the phone number shown on your brokerage account statement.

Access to the Service may be limited, delayed or unavailable during periods of peak demand and market volatility.

C. Linking and displaying Eligible Accounts.

If you enroll for the Service, certain Eligible Accounts on which you are an owner, Delegate of the owner, Eligible Beneficiary, or authorized signer may be linked and displayed. The linked and displayed Eligible Accounts through the Mobile Service may be subject to certain limitations and restrictions. Eligible Accounts that are linked together will appear on your account summary page on the Website without regard to who else may have an ownership interest in each Eligible Account.

D. Communicating electronically on your behalf.

To the extent necessary to carry out your instructions with respect to an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, you authorize us to send emails to you, and to other persons on your behalf. Emails and text messages sent to others pursuant to your instructions and on your behalf may identify you by name and may state that we are sending them on your behalf and according to your instructions. You confirm and agree that you have obtained consent from the person who owns or is the current subscriber of the email address or phone number to receive the communication.

4. Electronic fund transfer (EFT) provisions for Consumers.

The terms and conditions applicable to EFTs that debit or credit your brokerage account(s) are set forth in your brokerage account agreement, and not in this Agreement.

5. Alerts.

A. Description of alerts.

The alerts option allows you to request and receive messages about your Eligible Account(s). Alerts are sent via email. You may not modify, change, or alter the content of any alert message that we send to you.

We may automatically send you certain alert messages via email. These messages may include notifications about potential fraud on your accounts, recent account activity, or changes to your online profile. We also offer certain subscription-based alerts, as described further in the next section.

B. Registration for alerts.

You must be enrolled in the Service to use the subscription-based alerts option. To receive these alerts, you and your Authorized Representatives must enroll in alerts separately. Each alert will be effective after set up of the alert parameters and delivery points using the alerts service.

C. Security and delivery timing.

You agree that each alert may not be encrypted, and may include your name and information pertaining to your account(s). Receipt of any alert may be delayed, or prevented by factor(s) affecting your Internet service provider(s), phone operator(s), and other relevant entities. We neither guarantee the delivery or the accuracy of the contents of any alert. We will not be liable for losses or damages arising from (a) non-delivery, delayed delivery, or wrong delivery of any alert; (b) inaccurate content in an alert; (c) your use or reliance on the contents of any alert for any purposes. We reserve the right to terminate any request from you, for any alert, at any time. The information in any alert may be subject to certain time lags and/or delays. You will manage the types and timing of your subscription-based alerts, and those alerts may be stopped or suspended by you at any time.

D. Termination of alerts.

We may terminate or change your use of the Alerts Service at any time. We may also change, modify, or cancel either the content or the delivery method of any automatic alerts.

6. Online statements.

A. Description of online statements.

We offer online statements for certain Eligible Accounts and Online Financial Service, allowing you to supplement or, in some cases, replace your mailed (paper) statement with an electronic version (PDF) that you can view on the Website, save to your computer, or print at your convenience. Any legal notices or disclosures that normally accompany your mailed statement or that we would otherwise deliver to you by mail concerning your Eligible Account or Online Financial Service may be delivered to you electronically. We may, at our option, offer you additional options and preferences for the delivery of various types of communications related to your Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service. From time to time, we may add to, modify, or delete any feature of online statements in our sole discretion.

B. Eligible accounts and enrollment for online statements.

Your brokerage accounts are eligible for online statements. The online statement option for certain Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service is available if you have enrolled in the Service and provided us with a valid email address for the Service. Depending on the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, one or more of the following will be true, in some cases:

- in order to view the online statements for an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service you must first add the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service to the Service, or specifically enroll the Eligible Account or Online Financial Service for online statements;
- we may enroll you for online only statements for a particular Eligible Account or Online Financial Service, after providing you notice, unless you opt out and change your delivery preference back to "U.S. Mail";
- we will continue to send you paper (written) statements even if you are receiving online statements, unless you elect to stop receiving paper statements;
- enrolling accounts for online statements will automatically mean that we will no longer mail paper statements to you for that account; or
- you may not elect to stop receiving paper statements.

Details for receiving online statements for different types of Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service, and the effect of online statement enrollment on delivery of paper statements, are provided on the Service web pages.

We may, in our discretion, apply your current online statement delivery elections for an existing Eligible Account to any account that replaces or refinances the existing Eligible Account.

C. Accessing your online statements.

Your online statement and legal notices and disclosures will be presented to you on the Website. You will need to ensure that your computer software meets the requirements provided on the Website in order to view, print, and/or save your online statement and legal notices. Depending on the type of account, your statements are available online for up to a maximum of 7 years. The statements for some types of Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service are only available for shorter periods. There may be a gap in the historical statements available online for some types of Eligible Accounts if you do not enroll immediately at the time the account is first opened. For some types of Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service, there may be a delay of up to several weeks after enrollment before you can begin viewing statements online. If you close your account, your online statements and documents for that account will not be available for viewing, downloading, or saving. You will continue to have the option to request historical statements, for which fees may apply; please refer to the applicable account agreement and disclosures for details.

D. Change statement delivery method

At any time and at no charge, you can change the way we send you Eligible Account statements by changing your delivery preferences on the Website, selecting from among the available options for that account. Available options may vary depending on the type of Eligible Account. We may also offer other methods for changing your delivery options from time to time, either directly or through one of our affiliates. When you change your statement-delivery option, the change will take effect in your next statement cycle. When you tell us to stop sending you mailed (paper) statements, we'll send you an email every statement cycle to notify you that your current statement is ready to be viewed online, unless we tell you otherwise at the time you change your statement-delivery option. Changing the way we send account statements for an Eligible Account or Online Financial Service also authorizes us to send you other disclosures and communications concerning your Eligible Account using the same method. We always reserve the right to communicate with you in writing using the U.S. Postal Service, no matter what other options you have chosen. For Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service that are in default or subject to the automatic stay in bankruptcy, we may, at our sole option, elect to discontinue delivering online statements.

E. Year-end tax reporting documents.

1. Online year-end tax documents may become available to customers with certain account types who are enrolled in the Service and provide their valid email address for the Service. Customers are not required to complete a separate enrollment process in order to view their tax documents online. This option is available to you regardless of whether or not we also send you mailed (paper) tax documents.
2. In the future, you may be able to change the way we send you year-end tax documents on certain account types by changing your delivery preferences on the Website, selecting from among the available options. When you change your tax document delivery option, the change will take effect in your next annual tax reporting cycle. When you tell us to stop sending you mailed (paper) tax documents, we'll e-mail you to notify you that your current tax document is ready to be viewed online. We always reserve the right to communicate with you in writing using the U.S. Postal Service, no matter what other options you have chosen.

F. Termination of online statements.

We may terminate delivery of online statements to you for one or more Eligible Accounts or Online Financial Service without notice.

7. Use of Financial Management Software.

A. Description of Financial Management Software.

Financial Management Software includes: Quicken®, QuickBooks® Desktop Software and other software we may identify on the Website.¹ You are responsible for obtaining a valid and separate license agreement with the provider of your Financial Management Software. Your license agreement with the provider of your Financial Management Software may restrict the duration of your online access; we aren't liable for any such limitations or restrictions.

B. Account Information.

You understand and agree that:

- not all of the information in your Eligible Accounts can be downloaded into your Financial Management Software;
- information you can download may not include all of your account activity;
- statements generated by us are the official record of account transactions, positions and balances, and that the information you download is for tracking purposes only and should not be considered an official record;
- the account information will not necessarily reflect financial, or investment activities and transactions that have not yet been completed or settled and will only reflect the account information in your Eligible Accounts at the exact point in time that you download the information (for example, trades that have not yet been settled may not be reflected);
- account information in your Eligible Accounts may reflect transactions as of a prior time period and may not be current as of the point in time that you download such information;
- the account information that you download to your Financial Management Software will not be automatically updated by us, and that you will have to update the Eligible Account information by downloading more current information from your accounts (for example, stock prices, and/or the value of the investments we hold in your brokerage accounts, may be reflected at the prices at the close of the prior trading day and not at the current prices);
- the Eligible Account information may include information you have provided to us (for example, cost or tax basis information for securities we have transferred into your brokerage accounts and that you are solely responsible for the accuracy of this information; and
- we are not liable for any loss, damages or expenses of any kind as a result of your reliance upon the Eligible Account information in your Financial Management Software, which, for example, as stated above, may not be the most updated information and it may not include pending transactions such as a stock sale or purchase which has not settled.

C. Security of data transmission and storage.

1. You agree and understand that:

- you assume all risk that any Eligible Account information you download and store in your Financial Management Software may be accessed by unauthorized third parties;

¹ QuickBooks and Quicken are trademarks of Intuit Inc. registered in the United States and other countries.

- if you send the information in a manner that is not secure, or if you take the Eligible Account information out of our secure systems by downloading it, we are no longer responsible for the security and confidentiality of that information, and that the responsibility is now yours (or may be shared with others, such as your Financial Management Software provider); and
 - we are not responsible for the security and confidentiality of the Eligible Account information if you: (a) use wireless connections to download your account information, in which case you acknowledge such connection may permit other persons to access the information being downloaded, or (b) allow other persons access to your Financial Management Software.
2. You agree that any Eligible Account information that you download is done at your own risk and you are solely responsible for any damage that might occur to the computer (or other electronic device) to which you download any information, or any loss or corruption of data that might occur as a result of the downloading or its storage in a computer or other electronic device.

D. Fees for connecting to the Service through Financial Management Software.

14. Dispute resolution program: Arbitration Provision.

This Section ("Arbitration Provision") constitutes the arbitration agreement between you and us and includes a mutual waiver of class action rights. This Arbitration Provision governs disputes concerning:

- interpretation of this Agreement (including the meaning of this arbitration agreement and whether a disagreement is a "dispute" subject to binding arbitration as provided for in this arbitration

- agreement),
- the Service,
- the Online Access Process, and
- Online Financial Service ("Covered Disputes").

This Agreement contains a pre-dispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:

- All of the parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed.
- Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- The panel of arbitrators typically will include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Agreement.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until:

- i. the class certification is denied; or
- ii. the class is decertified; or
- iii. the customer is excluded from the class by the court.

Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

We will pay any costs that are required to be paid by us under the arbitration administrator's rules and procedures, and subject to applicable law. If the arbitrator rules in your favor on any claim presented, we will reimburse you for arbitration filing fees you have paid up to $700.00. Unless applicable law states otherwise, each party will pay their own attorney, expert, and witness fees. This rule applies no matter which party wins arbitration.

15. Arbitration Provision:

It is agreed that all controversies or disputes which may arise between you and Introducing Firm, Clearing Agent and any Sub-Advisor (and/or any other agent), (collectively, "us") concerning any transaction or the construction, performance or breach of this Agreement or any other agreement between us, whether entered into prior to, on, or subsequent to the date of this Agreement, including any controversy concerning whether an issue is arbitrable, shall be determined by arbitration conducted before, and only before, an arbitration panel set up by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") in accordance with its arbitration procedures. Any of us may initiate arbitration by filing a written claim with FINRA. Any arbitration under this Agreement will be conducted pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act and the Laws of the State of New York.

The E-Address may be an e-mail address, other Internet address, text messaging number, or other electronic access address provided to us in accordance with this Agreement. Any Account-Related Information will be deemed to have been sent on the first Business Day following the date on it. Account-Related Information that is held for pick-up or posted on our Website will be deemed to be delivered to, and received by, you at the time that we make it available for pick-up, display it to you, or send notice in accordance with this Agreement that it is posted on our Website, as applicable. The person receiving the notice is responsible for providing copies of all Account-Related Information to all joint owners, Delegates, or other persons with access to the applicable Eligible Account or Online Financial Service. We reserve the right at all times to communicate all Account-Related Information to you through the U.S. Postal Service or overnight courier, at our sole option.
